

Please do not allow the wisconsin do not call list to be overridden by politicians in washington. I recieve hardly any telemarketing calls anymore, and I want it to stay that way. If I do not want sales calls to my home I should be able to make that decision, not politicians in DC who are influenced by nothing more than dollar signs.